

Phases	Viewing the web page	Entering the web page	Exploring the web page	Exiting from web page
Steps	Explore the front view of the web page Read the introduction to know about the working	Sign up/Log in into the page using their email id ,user name and password	Choose different hand gestures for different purposes related to viewing images Once deciding the gestures , using them to view the images such as flip, resize, rotate etc	Once using the web page leaving the page
Motivations	Feel excited to see the features	Have a user id and password of their own	Have rememberable gesture for easy use	Feel satisfied with the features by exploring them
Actions	Enter into the web page url to view the home page	Sign up the web page by entering the email id and creating user id and password Log in with used id and password if already signed up	Upload gestures for analyzing image (for sterile browsing)	Log out from web page after using them
Touchpoints	On entering web page there will be email id, contact number, Twitter account to contact company	On signing up there will be customer help option so that company can be contacted for any requirement	There will be a help option to clear doubts	There will be a review box where feedback of the web page can be posted.
Pain points	Feel easy to sign in and have an account	May feel uneasy to enter password and used id whenever they enter web page	May take some time to load the image and recognizing gesture	No issues on logging out